MIDTOWN MANHATTAN DISCOVERY WALK

1. Sheraton Hotel: is on 7th Avenue between 52th and 53th Streets just north of Times Square in “Mid Town”.
2. Duffy Square: covers an entire city block and straddles two urban precincts; a financial district and a low-scale, residential neighborhood. Completed in 1989 it stands 778 feet tall.
3. Times Square: is a major intersection in Manhattan at the junction of Broadway and Seventh Avenue and stretching from West 42nd to West 47th Streets. The Times Square area consists of the blocks between Sixth and Eighth Avenues from east to west, and West 40th and West 53rd Streets from south to north.
4. Schubert Alley: is a cut through between 44th and 45th Streets in the Theater District.
5. Bryant Park: is a 9.603 acre privately-managed public park bounded by Fifth Avenue, Sixth Avenue, 40th Street and 42nd Street in Midtown Manhattan. The central building of the New York Public Library is in the park.
6. New York Public Library: is one of the leading public libraries of the world and one of the largest public library systems in the US. If the three public library systems of New York City were considered as a single entity it would have 208 branches and a collection of more than 30 million book volumes, making it the largest public library in the world.
7. Grand Central Station: is a terminal station at 42nd Street and Park Avenue in Midtown Manhattan. Built by and named for the New York Central Railroad in the heyday of American long-distance passenger trains, it is the largest train station in the world by number of platforms: 44, with 67 tracks along them.
8. Rockefeller Center: is a complex of 19 commercial buildings covering 22 acres between 48th and 51st streets between Fifth Avenue and Seventh Avenue. Built by the Rockefeller family it was declared a National Historic Landmark in 1987.
9. Waldorf Astoria: is a famously luxurious hotel in New York at 301 Park Avenue. It is a 47 story, 625 foot tall Art Deco landmark dating from 1931.
10. St. Bartholomew’s: is commonly called St. Bart’s an historic Episcopal parish founded in 1835.
11. St. Patrick’s Cathedral: is the main Catholic church in Midtown. It is 405 feet long, 174 feet wide, and seats 2,400 people. It was opened May 25, 1879.
12. 5th Avenue: is one of the main commercial thoroughfares in Manhattan and one of the premier shopping streets in the world.
13. Trump Tower: is a 58-story skyscraper in New York City located at 725 Fifth Avenue, at the corner of 56th Street. Public washrooms are located in the lower level!
14. Grand Army Plaza: is located at the southeast corner of Central Park.
15. Central Park Zoo: is run by the Wildlife Conservation Society.
16. The Bandshell: is one of the public performance spaces in Central park.
17. Bethesda Fountain: overlooks The Lake and is on two levels, united by two grand staircases and a lesser one that passes under Terrace Drive to provide passage southward to the Elkan Naumburg bandshell and The Mall, of which this is the architectural culmination, the theatrical set-piece at the center of the park.
18. The Lake: is a 20 acre man-made water way in Central Park.
19. Strawberry Fields: is a Central Park memorial designed by Bruce Kelly, the chief landscape architect for the Central Park Conservancy. Strawberry Fields was inaugurated on what would have been Lennon’s 45th birthday, 9 October 1985, by his widow Yoko Ono, who had underwritten the project.
